[AUGUST, MDCCLXVII.] THE [NUMB. 89.]

SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1767.

VIENNA, APRIL 25.

THOUGH this court appears not to want directly to interfere in the affairs of Poland, relative to the pretenſions of the Diſſidents, there is reaſon, however, to believe it will be very attentive to the conſequences that may reſult from them. In the mean time it is thought here pretty generally, that the method uſed by Ruſſia on this occaſion, will give riſe, if not to an open war, at leaſt to a multitude of troubles. The Dyet, indeed, is the aſſembly which has the power of granting the demand made by Ruſſia; but the object in queſtion, being a very important affair of ſtate, and requiring of courſe an unanimity of voices, it is apparent, ſay they, that among the great number of deputies, which compoſe the national ſenate, there will be more than one, who will be diſpoſed to make uſe of the LIBERUM VETO.

HAMBURGH, April 18. According to ſome letters from Warſaw, ſeveral parties are formed there. They ſeem to be ſenſible now, that things have been carried too far in the laſt Dyet, againſt the Diſſidents; and that the deliberations have been more influenced by zeal than policy. They are at preſent embarraſſed to find means to prevent a civil war, (the effects of which, cannot but prove fatal, and the iſſue doubtful) and at the ſame time ſave the honour of the King and the Republic. The thing, however, is not impoſſible, if prudence and moderation direct the councils, inaſmuch as Ruſſia demands nothing but the re-eſtabliſhment of the Diſſidents to their rights by means of a negociation.

PARIS, May 1. The ſpiritual concert at the Thuilleries was interrupted laſt Sunday by a tragical event. An Engliſhman who was in company with ſome ladies in one of the boxes, where there was a French officer, talked and ſung, and made ſo much noiſe, that the officer repreſented to him that it was impoſſible to hear the concert, and receiving an inſulting anſwer, made a ſign to him to walk out. As the officer was going out of the box, the Engliſhman gave him a box on the ear, in ſight of the company; upon which the officer ran him through the body and made his eſcape. The Engliſhman was immediately put under proper care; but it is aſſured his wound is not dangerous. He is ſaid to be a rich merchant of London. The regard paid here to foreigners, may, perhaps, occaſion this affair to be ſuppreſſed.

FLORENCE, April 18. A letter from Rome brings, that after a conſultation held by ſeveral Cardinals, on the ſubject of the Jeſuits, it was reſolved not to receive into his Holineſs's territories any other prieſts of that order, than ſuch as ſhould be known to be Italians, and that in conſequence thereof orders had been ſent to the Governors of the ports of the Eccleſiaſtical State, not to permit the Spaniſh veſſels to land any Jeſuits there, but ſuch as above mentioned.

PARIS, May 3. The Engliſhman, who thro' ignorance of our manners and cuſtoms gave a box on the ear to an officer at the ſpiritual concert, and who, in conſequence thereof was put into the Baſtile, is now recovered. He will be conducted without loſs of time to the frontiers of France on the ſide towards England; and the King being deſirous that this affair ſhould have no bad conſequences, has given orders to his antagoniſt, who is a reduced officer of the regiment of Fitz-James, not to go out of the kingdom under any pretence whatſoever.

BERLIN, May 9. On the 7th inſtant, about three o'clock in the morning, the Princeſs Royal of Pruſſia was ſafely brought-to-bed of a Princeſs at Potzdam; and by the accounts ſince received, her Royal Highneſs and the young Princeſs continue to be as well as can be expected.

TURIN, May 6. It is reported that the Duke of Parma has lately publiſhed an Edict, which obliges all the Monks, Friars, and Convents in the State, to give an immediate account of their revenues, and the employment that has been, and is, made thereof, before a Delegate appointed for that purpoſe.

LEGHORN, April 24. The Corſicans have reinforced their troops at Capraja with 150 men; and the Genoeſe not having been able to give aſſiſtance to the commander of the fortreſs, the Corſican officer was offered a capitulation, on which he immediately ſent an expreſs to General Paoli for orders how to proceed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 3. The Chevalier de Virgennes, the French miniſter, had an audience of the Viſier the day before yeſterday, and it is ſaid, informed him, that ſeveral Albanian corſairs, which were cruiſing off the iſlands in the Archipelago, had committed many piracies; that they had already ſeized upwards of ten French merchant ſhips; that he expected the Porte would cauſe them to be reſtored as illegally taken, ſince the French are not at war with her; and that the Porte would repreſs theſe violences; or that otherwiſe he would ſend inſtructions to the commander of a French fleet in the Mediterranean to burn the piratical veſſels.

PARIS, May 12. The Parliament have juſt iſſued an Arret, founded on the opinions of the King's council, and attorney-general, declaring the Jeſuits enemies to the Sovereigns, and the public tranquillity of kingdoms: In conſequence of which, all thoſe who were indulged with the liberty of remaining in the kingdom by the Edict of November 1764, are now ordered to quit it in fifteen days, on pain of criminal proſecution. By this Arret they are likewiſe forbid ever to return, under any pretence whatever; and the governors, &c. of all the provinces are ordered not to ſuffer any Jeſuit in their juriſdictions, under pain of being reſponſible for it. The King's ſubjects, of all ranks and conditions, are forbid to give any aſylum to the Jeſuits, or to maintain the leaſt correſpondence with them; and the archbiſhops, biſhops, and all the chiefs of communities, ſchools, and other eſtabliſhments, are at the ſame time enjoined not to employ in the inſtruction of youth any one who has been a member of the ſaid ſociety. Supplication, moreover, is to be made to the King, to uſe his intereſt with the Pope and other Catholic Princes, to engage them to aboliſh a ſociety ſo dangerous to Chriſtianity and Sovereign Power; and his Majeſty will be alſo intreated to make the tenor of the preſent Arret a fundamental law of the ſtate.

FRANCFORT, May 15. There were three ſhocks of an Earthquake at Rothenbourg, in the country of Heſſe, on the 12th of April at night. All the windows of the caſtle were broke, and moſt of the chimneys thrown down. The Landgrave's family were in the garden, under tents, for three days.

PARIS, May 15. A few days ago the King loſt his way in the foreſt of Senare, as he was hunting a deer, which obliged his Majeſty to take a poſt-chaiſe to go to Verſailles, where he arrived very late in the night. The Prince de Beauveou, captain of the King's guards, was obliged to get behind the chaiſe, that he might not leave the perſon of the King.

MADRID, May 8. Letters from Carthagena of the 28th of April adviſe, that a commiſſary is arrived with orders from the King, to interrogate ſome of the Jeſuits there; and that this commiſſary has already examined ſeveral young people, inhabitants of Carthagena, who ſtudied in the college, under theſe fathers. He has likewiſe taken the names of theſe ſtudents, and ſignified to them, on the part of the King, that they muſt not go out of the city for ſix months. From all theſe circumſtances it is to be preſumed, that the Jeſuits are accuſed of certain crimes, which the government is endeavouring to get ſufficient proof of; and it is on this account that theſe fathers remain ſo long at Carthagena, though there are ſeveral ſhips ready to take them into Italy.

MADRID, May 12. A report prevails that the Imperial Miniſter lately arrived here is charged to engage our court to conclude a treaty of commerce with that of Vienna.

WARSAW, May 18. The Biſhop of Cracow, the Waywode of Lenczyc, his brother, the Waywode of Kiovia, and the Count of Mniſzeck, have, it is aſſured, formed a general confederacy, as well for the kingdom, as Lithuania, but people ſpeak of it ſo confuſedly, and in ſo myſterious a manner, that it is difficult to ſay, whether it is to be oppoſed to thoſe of the Diſſidents, or to have for its end the maintenance of the public tranquillity.

LONDON, MAY 9.

ON Wedneſday was held a general court of the Eaſt-India company; when, among other things, a meſſage was read, which had been received, recommending to the company not to make any increaſe in their dividend till ſuch time as their affairs were further conſidered of; but, notwithſtanding, a motion was made to divide twelve one-half per cent. per ann. to commence at midſummer next; which had been agreed to. And a motion was made to put a ſtop to the law proſecutions which have been carrying on together for ſome time againſt ſome gentlemen that have been employed in the company's ſervice; which were likewiſe agreed to, and the court adjourned.

It is ſaid a certain order was not at firſt obeyed, which occaſioned a ſecond meſſage in a ſtile with which it was thought proper to comply.

The occaſion of the late unexpected expulſion of the Jeſuits from Spain, is ſaid to have been as follows: The Jeſuits in the Spaniſh dominions had forged, or ſurreptitiouſly obtained, a bull from the Pope, delegating them the ſame powers as, and rendering them independant of, all archbiſhops and biſhops, whomſoever, caſes of ordination only excepted. This circumſtance (reſpecting a privilege ſo very new and alarming) ſome of the fathers too inconſiderately and precipitately communicated to a few of the council of Caſtile. This was privately carried to the miniſters of ſtate, and by them imparted to his Catholick Majeſty. The King, fired at the ambitious inclinations of the Jeſuits, though no ways dubious of the authenticity of the Bull, complained of the matter, by his ambaſſador at Rome, to the Pope. His Holineſs was aſtoniſhed; he abſolutely denied a recollection of any ſuch grant. The proper records were ſearched, but in vain; no veſtage of any ſuch Bull was to be found. Couriers were immediately diſpatched to Madrid with the news of this ſingular event. His Catholick Majeſty and the Spaniſh Miniſters were alarmed at ſuch a daring ſtep in the fathers; they deliberated in ſecret, and a very ſhort conſideration (conſidering the important nature of the buſineſs) determined the King to rid his country at once of ſuch a dangerous body of men.

A duel was lately fought in Dublin, at which a father was ſecond to his own ſon, and ſaw him ſhot through the ſhoulder, run through the body, and left for dead upon the ſpot: He has ſince recovered however, but will never be in a condition to amuſe himſelf in that manner again.

It is ſaid that all foreign lawns imported into this kingdom, are to be rated as Sileſia lawns, and to pay duty accordingly, and, that over and above the ſaid duty, an additional duty of three-pence per yard will be laid upon all foreign lawns ſo imported.

One day after the race at laſt New-market meeting, a farmer who had won a conſiderable ſum of money, riding home obſerved a well mounted man leaving a cambrick handkerchief at a turnpike through which he was to paſs, conjectured that the gentleman had loſt all his money at the races, and redeeming his handkerchief, rode up to him with it, at the ſame time telling him his ſuppoſition very civilly, and offering him what money he pleaſed, if he had really ruined the manner of his circumſtances; the perſon upon this took the handkerchief ſurlily, and cried, "damn your generoſity, it has ſaved you 170l. I watched you on the courſe, and know to a ſhilling what money you have about you; my intention was to rob you when we came in a more convenient place, but your generoſity has rendered that impoſſible, and I wiſh you a good evening," ſo ſaying, he ſet ſpurs to his horſe, accepting of a guinea, however, to bear his charges on the road.

A quarter-maſter at Putney has now a dog, to whom he gives a halfpenny every morning, which the dog lays out at a neighbouring chandler's ſhop for a roll for his breakfaſt; a few days ago the animal went as uſual for his roll, but finding it too hot, was obliged to drop it by the way; on which he ran back, ſnatched up the halfpenny off the counter, and laid the money out at another ſhop. A gentleman has offered twenty guineas for him, but was refuſed.

MAY 12. On Friday was held a general court of the Eaſt-India company, which did not break up till 9 o'clock. Among other things, a motion was made to reconſider the proceedings of the laſt court, which was not carried. Afterwards a motion was made to agree to the propoſitions which the court of directors had made to the government, which was complied with; and it was alſo agreed to leave to the court of directors the affair of the drawback on teas, &c.

They write from Madrid, that numbers of pieces have been publiſhed there relative to the expulſion of the Jeſuits, all which are read with the greateſt avidity; but that none of them ſeem to contain the true cauſe of that event. His Catholick Majeſty, however, it is expected will communicate to the Pope, the real motives of it.

In 1598, the Jeſuits were baniſhed from France, for being concerned in the aſſaſſination of King Henry IV. They were driven from England by Queen Elizabeth in 1602; from the Republic of Venice in 1605; from Poland in 1607; from Bohemia, Sileſia, Moravia, and Hungary, 1619, where however they were again re-eſtabliſhed; they were afterwards expelled from Portugal and France, and now juſt baniſhed for ever from the monarchy of Spain.

We hear a religious order, of whom there are at preſent too many in this kingdom, have had two meetings, one in the North of England, the other near this metropolis, ſince it was publickly known the Jeſuits were expelled the kingdom of Spain.

We are informed that Zacharias Baille, Eſq; is appointed, by the Board of Treaſury, collector of his Majeſty's cuſtoms and revenues at Jamaica, in the room of J. C. S. Douglas, Eſq.

They write from Senegal, that ſome gentlemen of the factory had juſt returned from making a tour of five hundred miles above Podore factory and ſettlements, and gave a very advantageous account of the inland country abounding in ivory, gold duſt, and gums.

They adviſe from Shetland, that the herring fiſhery was begun in Baſſa ſound, and promiſed a very plentiful ſeaſon; but that the Dutch had upwards of ſeven hundred buſſes, and the Engliſh ſeventy, including boats.

We hear that the principal citizens of Norwich have ſet the laudable example of trying an experiment for avoiding venality and corruption at the election of members of Parliament, by ſubſcribing the following aſſociation: "Senſible of the depravity of morals and licentiouſneſs of manners brought on us by bribes at our elections, and alarmed at the thoughts of that bondage which muſt inevitably be the fruit of it, we whoſe names are under-written, not ſeeing the neceſſity of ſubmitting to a nomination founded on the corrupt principles of bargain and ſale, and having no point in view but to chooſe our repreſentatives with honour to themſelves and the city, and to preſerve our own freedom and independency, do hereby unite and aſſociate in one friendly ſociety, binding ourſelves to each other by our word and honour, and promiſing that we will not on any conſideration whatever, either directly or indirectly, engage our vote and intereſt to any candidates, or to any perſon on their behalf, againſt the next general election of members to ſit in parliament, until the very day of election; and then each man to vote as his inclination may prompt him. And in the mean time we recommend to each other to keep a watchful eye upon what paſſes, and to have frequent converſation upon the ſubject."

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Sentleger Aldworth, Eſq; (nephew of the late Lord Viſcount Doneraile and Baron Kilmeadon of the Kingdom of Ireland) and to Mary his wife, and the heirs of their reſpective bodies lawfully begotten, full power, licence, and authority, to aſſume and take upon them, the ſur-name, and bear the arms of Sentleger.

We hear a perſon of diſtinction has engaged to ride from London to Edinburgh in 38 hours, for a conſiderable ſum of money; he is to ſet out in a few days. Great bets are depending.

It is ſaid a bill is preparing for granting to his Majeſty certain duties on houſes, windows and lights, throughout that part of Great-Britain, called Scotland.

A bill is now under conſideration, to prevent the killing of all kinds of female kine, of any ſpecies whatſoever, for three years, in order to the increaſe of ſtock; but which, without being well ſecured, will anſwer no material end, as every neighbouring grazier knows each other's ſtocks; and in order to keep up the price, they agree what number each ſhall take to market.

[illegible] hear that orders have been given to a [illegible] are an account of their sales for the [illegible]th a ſtate of their debts, and the amount of their ſeveral credits.

It is reported that within theſe few months paſt, upwards of 500 Romiſh Prieſts and Jeſuits have ſettled in Oxford-road, and the neighbourhood thereof.

An effectual ſtop will, in a few days, be put to the currency of all copper coin in this kingdom.

It is ſaid a ſcheme is meditating for laying a duty on all kinds of parchment and paper, uſed for engroſſing rolls and warrants of attorney in the courts of law, which at preſent pay no ſtampt duties, and will bring not only a conſiderable revenue, but be a further ſecurity to the ſubject.

A table is printed at Paris of the aſſemblies held at Rennes by the Jeſuits and their friends, and containing the name of every perſon who aſſiſted at them; to which aſſemblies is attributed the diſgrace of the exiles belonging to the parliament of Britanny.

Advice is received in town, at the French proteſtant congregation, that the whole 27 convents of St. Maur, in France, who had adopted ſome principles of the Jeſuits, and were diſcovered therein, have had abſolute orders for removal within 48 hours, upon pain of impriſonment.

MAY 16. Advices of great importance are arrived from North-America. They are ſaid to be very diſagreeable in their tendency. The coloniſts plead their poverty, with what truth we may judge from private letters lately received from thoſe parts, ſome of which give us to underſtand, that the number of carriages kept in New-York has, in about four years, increaſed from 5 to 70.——Some houſes are let there for 200l. per annum. At Philadelphia a play-houſe is built, and as much frequented by the Quakers, as by thoſe who have fewer external marks of religion. Cock-fighting, fox-hunting, horſe-racing, and every other expenſive diverſion, are in great vogue in the colonies, yet the coloniſts pretend they are not able to pay towards the ſupport of their government.

MAY 19. Letters from Naples, of the 21ſt paſt, adviſe, that the courier who brought them the news of the perpetual baniſhment of the Jeſuits from the Spaniſh monarchy, has been ſent back; but that nobody could foreſee yet what conduct that court would purſue towards the fathers of that order, who are ſettled in that kingdom.

They write from Venice, that an open war with the Algerines was thought to be inevitable; the Dey having propoſed to the Senate, as the baſis of an accommodation, conditions the moſt exorbitant, and incompatible with the honour and ſovereignty of the republic.

A large number of new improved hand mills for grinding of corn, are now conſtructing, in order to be ſhipped off, for the uſe of the ſettlers in Florida.

Extract of a letter from Paris, May 10.

" The ſecret packet ſent by the Count d'Aranda to the different Governors, &c. in Spain, was incloſed in a letter, directing them not to open the packet till the evening of the 2d, and commanding them not to take the leaſt notice of their having received it. They were ordered by the ſecret packet, which informed them of the fate of the Jeſuits, to put his Majeſty's commands into execution the next morning by break of day, and not to ſuffer any perſon employed therein to quit them until the buſineſs was completed. It is no longer a ſecret that the King has been informed by his Catholic Majeſty of the reaſons for taking thoſe ſteps againſt the Jeſuits. The Marquis D'Oſſun, our Miniſter at the Court of Spain, has written a letter, which has been read before the King's Council, and confirms the report of his Majeſty having eſcaped aſſaſſination, by retiring from Madrid on account of ſome diſturbances three days before this project of the Jeſuits was to have taken place."

MAY 21. Yeſterday his Majeſty went to the houſe of peers, and gave the royal aſſent to a number of bills, among which were, a bill for raiſing 1,500,000 l. by annuities and lottery, for the ſervice of the preſent year; and a bill to allow the free importation of rice, ſago, duſt, and vermicelli, for a limitted time, from the American colonies.

The laſt letters from Senegal mention, that ſome additional works had been made to Podore fort, on that coaſt, by which means it was become a place of great ſtrength.

Letters from Genoa, of the 18th ult. ſay, " That they have received accounts there, from divers places, of there being a great number of Barbary corſairs in the Mediterranean, which even interrupt the navigation of ſhips belonging to nations in friendſhip with them."

MAY 23. The following is related as true. Among the paintings in the exhibition at Spring-gardens, was a picture of Lord H—— (drawn when he was ſecretary of ſtate) ſitting with, and giving inſtructions to his two ſecretaries, one of whom is repreſented as holding a ſtick of ſealing-wax over the candle in his right hand, and in the other a paper ready for ſealing. Two noblemen viewing this Painting, the one aſked the other if he knew the parties? " Undoubtedly; (was the reply) it is Lord H—— preparing to ſign a general-warrant; and you ſee the ſly rogue of a painter, by carrying the flame of the candle ſo very nigh, has ſhewn his lordſhip and his ſecretaries, that ſuch things cannot be done without a certain danger of burning the fingers.

According to letters from America, all the ſouthern provinces had acceded to the orders of government, for making the neceſſary proviſions for quartering the military.

MAY 26. The Utrecht Gazette of the 19th inſtant, has the following article:——" London, May 12. The court hath received from Madrid an account of the motives which engaged the King of Spain to expel the Jeſuits from his dominions; and in conſequence thereof, have given the neceſſary orders for preventing the entrance of any of the Jeſuits, baniſhed from the Spaniſh monarchy, into this kingdom."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, May 14.

" His Catholic Majeſty is ſaid to have intimated to the Pope his procedure againſt the Jeſuits, only by the following laconic letter;"

" Holy Father,

" All my tribunals having judged that the fathers Jeſuits are of no good to my kingdoms, I could do no leſs than conform to their repreſentations. Of this, as a ſon of the holy church, I acquaint its ſupreme head. I recommend your Holineſs to the divine keeping."

The Iſland of Quebec is ſaid to abound with black wallnut trees in ſuch abundance, that preparations are making to import large quantities of it, this ſummer, for the upholſtery branch of buſineſs.

Highly to the honour of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, we are told, that during his adminiſtration in that kingdom, he intends to advance the natives only to employments; and leſt any of this be has lately given an intolerable proof by appointing all his chaplains from the gentlemen of that country.

MAY 28. It is imagined the parliament muſt be obliged to meet again, for a few days, after their adjournment for Whitſun holidays. The laſt ſeſſion broke up the 6th of June.

The Houſe of Commons did not break up till paſt twelve o'clock on Tueſday night.

At a general court of the Eaſt-India company yeſterday at Merchant Taylor's Hall, the following queſtion was propoſed: " That a petition be humbly preſented to parliament, ſetting forth, that a bill now depending for regulating the making of dividends by the Eaſt-India company, and tending to reſcind an act done on the 6th of May by a general court of proprietors of the ſaid company, would, if paſſed into a law, be extremely prejudicial to the rights and properties of the petitioners, and would materially prejudice the public credit, as well as the particular intereſt of the company, and praying that the petitioners may have leave to lay before parliament, the motives of the conduct of the proprietors at the ſaid general court, together with the circumſtances of the company; and that they may be heard by themſelves and counſel, againſt ſuch parts of the bill as may affect their rights and intereſts.

A large number of double-headed ſaws are getting ready to be ſhipped for Nova Scotia, on account, as is ſaid, of an additional bounty that will be granted on the importation of American plank and timber into this kingdom.

We hear Sir Edward Hawke will ſet out in a few days to make a ſurvey of Portſmouth and Plymouth docks.

To the PRINTER.

WHOSOEVER conſiders the character of the Jeſuits at this day, the cauſes of their fall in Portugal, France and Spain, and the fate that ſeems ſtill to await them, can ſcarce fail to be ſtruck by the following paſſage in a ſermon preached by Brownſwell, Archbiſhop of Dublin, in 1558, when Lanez, general of the ſociety, and the immediate ſucceſſor of St. Ignatius, had formed it into a mere political body.

" There is lately riſen up a new fraternity, a ſociety of men called Jeſuits, who ſhall ſeduce many people. They are actuated by the ſpirit of the Scribes and Phariſees: They ſhall employ all their talents to deſtroy the truth, and they ſhall be near ſucceeding: They are a generation who aſſume all ſhapes; With Pagans they will be Pagans; with Jews, Jews; with the Reformed, Reformed; Athieſts with Athieſts; wholly to diſcover your views, your deſigns, your inclinations, the bottom of your hearts, to render you, in the end, like the fool who ſaid in his heart, THERE IS NO GOD. This ſociety will ſpread over the whole earth; they will be admitted into the councils of Princes, who will not be the wiſer for ſo doing: They will bewitch them ſo far as to oblige them to lay open their hearts to them, to entruſt them with their greateſt ſecrets, even without perceiving it: They ſhall be deceived in this ſort for having forſaken the law of their God, neglected to follow the rules of the Goſpel, and ſhut their eyes to the ſins of their people. But in the end, to make known the righteouſneſs of his law, God ſhall ſpeedily extirpate this ſociety by the hands of thoſe who protected it moſt, and who ſerved themſelves moſt by it: So that theſe men ſhall become odious to all nations, and be in a worſe condition than the Jews. They ſhall no more have any fixed reſidence on earth; and in that time a Jew ſhall find more favour than a Jeſuit."

This paſſage may be ſeen in Ware's hiſtory of Ireland, p. 152, edit. 1705. It is here taken from the Hiſt. Generale de la Naiſſance & du Progreſſe de la Compagnie de Jeſus, tom. iv. p. 233.

NEW-YORK, July 23.

Extract from the Votes of the Houſe of Commons of Great-Britain, the 15th of May, 1767.

Reſolved,

THAT it appears to this Committee, that the Houſe of Repreſentatives of his Majeſty's Province of New-York, have, in direct Diſobedience of the Legiſlature of Great-Britain, refuſed to make Proviſion for ſupplying with Neceſſaries his Majeſty's Troops in ſuch a Manner as is required by an Act of Parliament made in the 5th Year of his Majeſty's Reign, entitled, An Act to amend and render more effectual, in his Majeſty's Dominions in America, an Act paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, entitled, An Act for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

Reſolved, That it appears to this Committee, that an Act of Aſſembly hath been paſſed in the ſaid Province, for furniſhing the Barracks in the Cities of New-York and Albany, with Firewood and Candles, and the other Neceſſaries therein mentioned, for his Majeſty's Forces, inconſiſtent with the Proviſions, and in Oppoſition to the Directions of the ſaid Act of Parliament.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That until Proviſion ſhall have been made, by the ſaid Aſſembly, for furniſhing the King's Troops with all the Neceſſaries required by the ſaid Act of Parliament, the Governor, Council and Aſſembly, be reſpectively reſtrained and prohibited, from paſſing or aſſenting to any Act of Aſſembly for any other Purpoſe whatſoever,

The firſt Reſolution of the Committee being read a ſecond Time;

The Houſe was moved, that an Act made, in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, entitled, An Act to amend and render more effectual, in his Majeſty's Dominions in America, an Act paſſed in this preſent Seſſions of Parliament, entitled, An Act for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, might be read.

And the ſame being read accordingly;

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion being put, that, the ſaid Reſolution be re-committed; it paſſed in the Negative.

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion being put, that, for the better ſecuring the Dependency of his Majeſty's Dominions in America, upon the Crown and Parliament of Great-Britain, all Perſons within his Majeſty's ſaid Dominions, who ſhall be elected or appointed Governor, Member of the Council, General Aſſembly, Houſe of Repreſentatives, or General Court, of any Province, within the ſame; and alſo all other Perſons within the ſame; who, by any Charter, Act of Parliament, or Provincial Law, are required to take the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, be required to ſubſcribe a Declaration " That the Colonies " and Plantations in America are, and of Right ought to " be, ſubordinate unto, and dependant upon, the Imperial " Crown and Parliament of Great-Britain; and that the " King's Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of " the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons of " Great-Britain, in Parliament aſſembled had, hath, and " of Right ought to have, full Power and Authority to " make Laws and Statutes, of ſufficient Force and Validity " to bind the Colonies, and People of America, Subjects " of the Crown of Great-Britain, in all Caſes whatſoever."

It paſſed in the Negative.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente,

That an humble Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty, that He will be graciouſly pleaſed to confer ſome Marks of His Royal Favour, on thoſe Governors and Officers in the ſeveral Colonies, who diſtinguiſhed themſelves by their Zeal and Fidelity in ſupporting the Dignity of the Crown, the juſt Rights of Parliament, and the Supreme Authority of Great-Britain over the Colonies, during the late Diſturbance in America.

Yeſterday his Majeſty's Sloop Gaſpee, arrived here in a ſhort Paſſage from Halifax: She is ſaid to come Expreſs from Commodore Hood, with Packets for their Excellencies our Governor and General Gage; and common Fame ſays, the Contents thereof are, a Suppreſſion of our Charter, and a Suſpenſion of the Legiſlative Power here, until we have complied with the Billeting-Act; but we apprehend this is too extraordinary a Stretch to be quite true. We hear ſeveral other Expreſſes were ſent off at the ſame Time, to the different Governments to the Weſtward of Halifax.

The ſeveral Tranſports here are now taking the Forces on board, that are to return to Europe, and we hear they will ſail in a few Days.

JULY 27. The Report we had on Wedneſday laſt of the Arrival of the Act of Parliament for the Legiſlative Authority of this Province to ceaſe until the Billeting Act is complied with, we can aſſure the Public, is without Foundation, as no ſuch Act was brought here in the Gaſpee, Captain Allen.

Extract of a Letter from New-Orleans, June 21, 1767.

" Monſieur De Ulloa continues at the Bellies; the Spaniards are building a Fort oppoſite the old one on the Right Hand as you enter the River, another within Gun Shot of Fort-Bute, another below the Natches, on the Weſt Side of the River, and a Fourth near Fort Chatres, Ilinois. Brigadier Haldiman is daily expected here on his way to the Natches: We hear the Lieutenant-Governor has occaſioned a general Diſſatisfaction among the Inhabitants of Penſacola."

Extract of a Letter from London, dated May 22, 1767.

" Incloſed I ſend you a Copy of the Merchants Report on the Subject of Paper Money, obtained after many Meetings, and delivered to the Miniſtry: But there are ſtill great Difficulties, the B——d of T—de being extremely averſe to the Repeal of the Act, and yet I hope we ſhall get over all, the Miniſtry being at length prevailed on to eſpouſe the Meaſure, that the Colonies may have ſomething to give on a Requiſition from the Crown, and that the Duties may Increaſe by the Increaſe of Commerce.—But it is ſtrongly reported that the preſent Miniſtry will be ſoon changed; if ſo, all our Labour will be rendered fruitleſs."

The Merchants of London, trading to the Continent of America, are of Opinion;

" That the moſt ſpeedy and effectual Relief to the Colonies, in reſpect to the preſent diſtreſſed State of their Commerce, for Want of a Medium of Trade, will be the Repeal of an Act of Parliament reſpecting Bills of Credit in America, paſſed in the 4th Year of his preſent Majeſty; and that ſuch Repeal cannot hurt the Britiſh Merchants, provided a Clauſe be inſerted in the Act for the ſaid Repeal, declaring Paper Bills of Credit ſhall not be a legal Tender in Payment of any Sterling Debts or Contracts whatſoever, already made, or to be made by or with, or in the Name and Behalf of any Perſon reſiding in the Kingdom of Great-Britain."

His Excellency Governor Sharpe has appointed the Honourable Walter Dulany, Eſq; to the Office of Commiſſary General of the Province of Maryland, Vacant by the Death of the Honourable Charles Goldſborough, Eſq.

Letters from Demerara, mention, that terrible Earthquakes have been lately felt there.

BOSTON, JULY 2.

Extract of a Letter from London, May 11.

" A few Days before the Houſe of Commons adjourned for the Eaſter Holidays, the Ch——r of the Ex——r opened his Budget, with very great Applauſe, even Mr. G——lle complimented him on the Occaſion: Among other Things he made it appear, that beſides paying the Navy and Army, and all other Charges of Government for the laſt Year, he had ſunk Three Millions, Nine Hundred Thouſand Pounds of the National Debt, and aſſured them that next Year he would diſcharge a much greater Sum; notwithſtanding they had reduced the Land-Tax One Shilling in the Pound. He took an Occaſion Yeſterday to ſay, that it was reported out of Doors that he was for taxing America, I declare, ſays he, I am not, nor never was; I thought the Stampt-Act a very improper Meaſure, and uſed my Endeavours for the Repeal; and (holding out his Hand) he ſaid he would cut off that Hand before he would vote for taxing America; and if any of the Duties laid on Trade ſhall appear burthenſome, nothing ſhall be wanting in me to remove them."

14th May, 1767.

" Yeſterday the Chancellor of the Exchequer mov'd the Houſe for Leave to bring in the following Bills, which was agreed to.

An Act to permit Wine, Fruit and Oil to be carried from Spain and Portugal directly to North-America.

An Act laying a Duty on China, Paper, Glaſs and Painters Colours, ſhipped from Great-Britain to the Colonies.

An Act for ſettling a Salary on the Governors, and Judges, &c. in North-America.

An Act for eſtabliſhing a Board of Revenue in North-America.

The following Articles were wrote by ſome Gentlemen at the New-England Coffee-Houſe, and given to ſome of the Paſſengers who came in Captain Lyde from London, viz.

" That the Americans may have Liberty of importing Lemmons, Wine, Fruit, and Oil directly from Spain and Portugal, ſubject to a Duty; the Duty on Wine to be £.7 per Ton. That the Duty on Tea remaining in England be taken off, and a Duty of 3d. per lb. be laid on the Importation in America. That there be a Board of Cuſtoms, as alſo a Court of Exchequer in New-England. That the Legiſlative Power of New-York ceaſe, until they comply with the Billeting Bill. That the Governors and Judges be made independant, by increaſing their Salary, which is to be paid out of the Revenues of the Cuſtoms.

" George Grenville made a Motion to oblige the Americans to take an Oath of Allegiance and Obedience to the Parliament of Great-Britain, which was put to Vote—for the Queſtion 90, againſt it 180 odd."

JULY 13. We hear a veſſel arrived at Portſmouth laſt Monday, in a ſhort paſſage from Briſtol, and brings advice that the BILLS moved for in the Houſe of Commons by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, as mentioned in our laſt, were all enacted, and that the trade to Liſbon was made free.

CHARLES-TOWN, AUGUST 18.

LAST Wedneſday Captain Joſeph Morris, in a Sloop belonging to New-York, put in here for a Supply of Proviſions and Water; and Yeſterday ſhe ſailed for New-York.

On Sunday Morning, between One and Two o'Clock, a Fire was diſcovered in a back Yard belonging to Mr. Abrahart Ehney, Butcher, in King-ſtreet, which conſumed a Kitchen, ſeveral Stables, &c. but there being little or no Wind, and timely Aſſiſtance being had, the Flames were ſoon extinguiſhed, and happily no other Damage was ſuſtained, but the pulling down Part of a ſmall Dwelling-Houſe nearly adjoining to where the Fire began.—It ſeems it was occaſioned by the Careleſſneſs of a Negro who had been into one of the Stables with a lighted Candle to get a Horſe, and by which it is ſuppoſed he ſat fire to ſome Hay, &c.—It is to be hoped, that this Accident will induce Maſters, or Heads of Families, to prevent their Servants from carrying lighted Candles into ſuch Places, which are very dangerous, and often attended with bad Conſequences.

The ſame Morning arrived here from Philadelphia, the Brig Prince of Wales, Thomas Maſon, Maſter, in whom came Paſſengers, Mrs. Johnſon and Children, Wife of Mr. William Johnſon; Mr. Chriſtopher Jourdan, Merchant, and ſundry others.

BARBADOS, May 5.

From the Journals of the Aſſembly,

Tueſday, April 28th, 1767.

THE Honourable Hillary Rowe, junior, Eſq; laid before the houſe a letter he had received from Charleſtown, South-Carolina, dated the 20th of February 1767, ſigned by Jacob Motte, and directed to him as publick treaſurer of this iſland, in which were incloſed two ſets of bills of exchange drawn by Henry Laurens, the one on Meſſrs. Reynolds, Getley and company, merchants in Briſtol, for 400l. ſterling, and the other on Edward Brice, merchant in Briſtol, for 3141. 5s. 8d. 3qrs. ſterling, payable to him the ſaid treaſurer, for the uſe of the moſt indigent and neceſſitous perſons who ſuffered by the late dreadful fires in this iſland, by order of the commons houſe of aſſembly of the ſaid province of South-Carolina.

Ordered, That the ſaid letter and bills be read; which was done accordingly.

Then John Gay-Alleyne, Eſq; after a ſhort ſpeech introductory of the motion he was about to make, moved,

That the thanks of this houſe be tranſmitted by the ſpeaker to the commons houſe of aſſembly of the province of South-Carolina, for ſo deſirable a proof of their benevolence to this community, as by the aid which they granted to the moſt indigent and neceſſitous perſons of thoſe who ſuffered by the late dreadful fires in Barbados.

Which motion being ſeconded by Mr. Beckles, was unanimouſly agreed to by the houſe; and ordered accordingly.

LIBERTY, an ODE.

WHILE knaves and fools, in deep debate,
Perhaps are plotting England's fate,
By fancy's aid I mount the wind,
And leave this droſſy world behind;
There picture to the mental eye,
The ſeat of heav'n-born Liberty.

High on a throne, from human ſight,
In regions of eternal light,
The goddeſs ſits——on either hand
Her attributes in order ſtand;
Mirth, plenty, innocence, and love,
Deſcendents from immortal Jove.

The power that keeps dull ſlaves in awe,
Firm concord, reaſon's, nature's law;
The virtues glowing in her breaſt,
With ample ſhield ſtands forth confeſt;
Wide-ſpreading laurels ſpring around,
And flowers enamel all the ground.

Emblems of Liberty, their Queen,
In harmleſs gambols round are ſeen,
Two lions of ſtupendous ſize,
With flowing mane, and fiery eyes,
At times employed to draw her car,
When forth ſhe ruſhes to the war.

Rais'd by her word above all art,
At diſtance from the throne a part,
Stands a firm pillar undecay'd
By time, who various ways eſſay'd——
His malice and his darts were vain,
Pointleſs they fell upon the plain.

Greece, Rome, and other names were ſhewn,
Deeply engraven on the ſtone:
But ſtronger, fairer, than the reſt,
Britannia! ſtood thy name confeſt;
While underneath, in words of gold
Theſe ever during truths were told——

"My beſt belov'd! my favour'd iſle!
While bleſt with my auſpicious ſmile,
The foes of Liberty and thee,
Shall from my dreaded preſence flee;
But ſhould'ſt thou, heedleſs, loſe my ſight,
Your glories ſet in endleſs night."

ANECDOTE.

SOME time ago a noble Duke of North Britain, and a German Count, being on their travels in France, they dined at a grand tavern, where part of the deſert was a fine piece of paſtry, repreſenting a number of ſhips in miniature. The Duke had no ſooner ſeen it than he cry'd out, "By G——d we have got the whole navy of France here." This expreſſion immediately getting wind, it was conſtrued into an affront upon the nation, and a ſatire upon the French navy, which ſo highly incenſed moſt of thoſe that heard it, that the conſequence might have proved fatal, had not the noble travellers taken a friendly hint to leave the town very early the next morning.

WILLIAM ADAMS,

WRITING-MASTER;

TAKES this method of acquainting the public, that he has opened a SCHOOL, at his houſe in ELLIOTT-STREET, nearly oppoſite BEADON's ALLEY; where children, and youth of both ſexes are taught reading, and writing a variety of the moſt uſeful hands; vulgar and decimal arithmetic, together with merchants accounts, menſuration, gauging, &c. in the moſt conciſe and expeditious manner.——Agreeable to his former advertiſement in this paper, he teaches to write a legible hand in ſix weeks, at one hour per day: A ſpecimen of a Dutch girls writing, who was never at any Engliſh ſchool before, whom he has taught to write a legible hand in four weeks; and another of about twelve years of age, who has been taught the ſame in twenty-four days, may be ſeen at Crouch's printing-office, and at his ſchool. He returns thanks to thoſe who already have been pleaſed to employ him: The general utility his plan in teaching will be of, to thoſe who are deſirous of gaining a competent knowledge of the uſe of the pen, arithmetic, &c. in a ſhort time, together with his continued aſſiduity, he hopes will recommend him to the favour of the public.——Mrs. ADAMS, makes children's gowns, ſlips, and teaches them to ſew, mark, &c.
